Website: www.ucd.ie/lgb/

Email: ucdlgbt@gmail.com

Bebo: <http://www.bebo.com/UCD-LGBT>

New members are welcomed to UCD's LGBT society at all meetings throughout the academic year. As the room for the regular Tuesday and Thursday meetings varies each week, the location is posted on the LGBT Society Message Board several hours before the event. The LGBT Message Board is located outside Theatre M in the John Henry Newman Building (the Arts Block).

Tuesdays @ 1:00pm

Thursdays @ 6:00pm

(Thursdays are a more formal event, generally with a speaker or other activity arranged by the committee.)

Society meetings are attended by both male and female members from all faculties and years in college. Members and friends are welcome and the occasional visit from academic staff. Persons of all sexual orientations are welcome to meetings and events of the society.

Special Events

In addition to these regular meetings, the society holds special events throughout the academic term. These activities often include: social outings, dances, trips, guest speakers, debates, movie nights, and many other fun and informative events. The society is always open to suggestions for new events!

Coming-Out Week - Autumn Semester

The purpose of "coming out week" is to raise awareness throughout the University community of these unique issues that LGBT students face. In addition, the society works to advertise the social, support, informational, and health resources available to students who are beginning this process.

Rainbow Week

Rainbow Week is a week of events for LGBT students. There are coffee mornings, night time events, quizzes, pizza, film nights, and intervarsity events with other colleges. There is also a gay pride march through campus and full of colour and fun for everyone. The highlight of the week is the Mock Wedding.

Information about the society or any lesbian, gay, bisexual, or transgender issue is available by contacting the society.

Trinity College Dublin

LGBT Society

Website: <http://www.trinitylgbt.com/>

Email: info@TrinityLGBT.com

New members are always welcome to join the society. Just drop in for tea/coffee any Tuesday, Wednesday or Thursday from 1pm to 3pm, or keep an eye on the Events page on their website and simply turn up to an event.

Trinity LGBT has set up a Buddy Group for new members looking for an introduction or feeling a little intimidated. Just send them an email, giving your name and whether you'd like to meet with a boy or a girl, and one of the committee members will gladly show you who's who and what's what. All correspondence etc. is kept confidential. They will arrange for you to meet up outside the LGBT Room with one of the committee members, who can introduce you to the society, give you a friendly face to talk to, and just be a gateway into the world of Trinity LGBT.
Email: buddy@TrinityLGB.org

The LGBT Room is in Room 27, House 6 (above SU shop). In House 6, go up to the Second Floor, turn left at top of stairs and Room 2.27 is at the end of the corridor.
